Hola Llamigo – Activity Sheet

Summary:

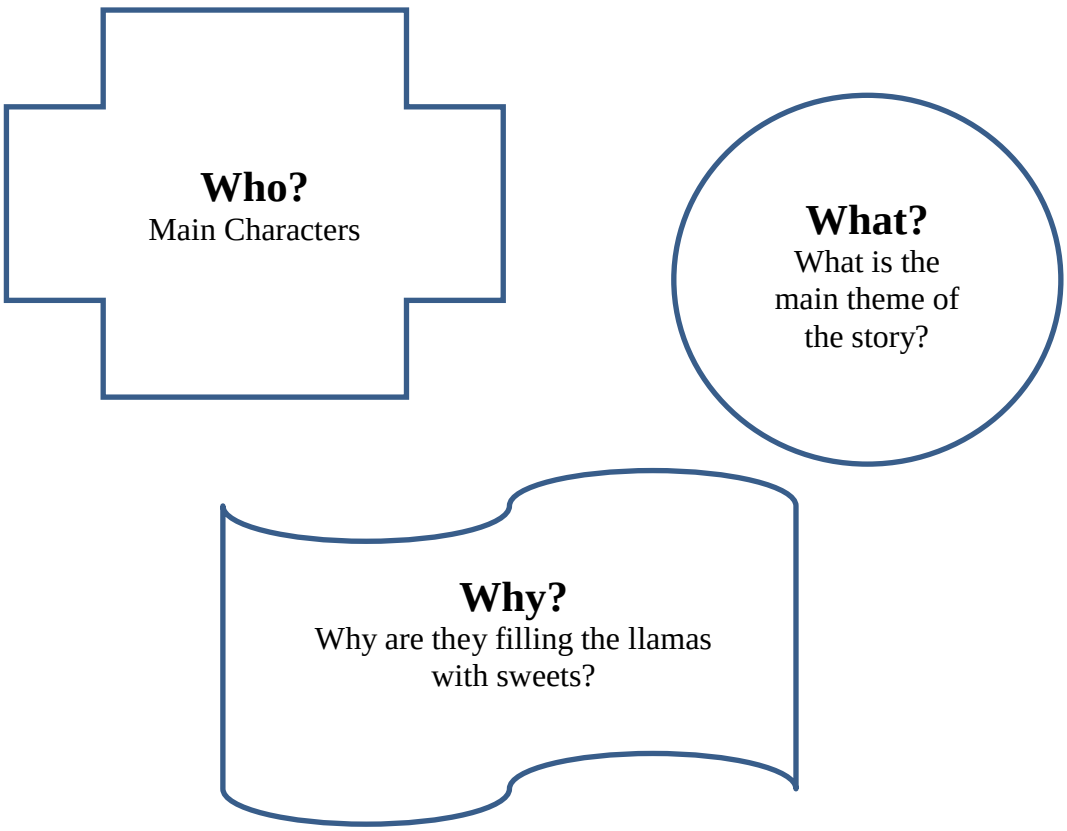
A young boy is sleeping. His father calls him but he doesn´t want to get up because he is still tired. The father has a lot of work for him to do.

The father and son work hard collecting sweets to feed to the llama animals. These animals are then sold and sent away once they are full with sweets.

The young boy becomes friends with one of the llama animals.

Writing Activity:

Why are they filling the llamas with sweets?

When the boy becomes friends with the llama the work becomes more fun and easier. The boy gets the work done faster. Why?


Fill the following story map with the details from the video: