

Embarked – Activity Sheet

---

Summary:

A young boy had a special tree house. The family moved house and the tree house was left behind. The tree realized that the boy had forgotten something and went on a journey to find the boy.

Writing activities:

Do you have a special place with a lot of wonderful memories? Write some of your memories.

Have you ever moved house?

When you move house there are some things that you miss and some things that are better in the new house. Talk about it.

The tree was upset because it thought that the boy had replaced it with another playhouse. Is this what had happened? Discuss.
