

The Broken Wand - Activity Sheet

Summary:

An elderly man is very excited because someone is coming to visit him. A young boy comes to the door, playing an electronic game.

The old man tries many different tricks to try to get the boy's attention but the young boy continues to play on his electronic game.

Writing Activity:

Do you like magic tricks? Do you know how to perform a magic trick?

What relationship do you think the elderly magician and the young boy have?

Can you list the different tricks that the old man did to try to get the young boy's attention?

When the boy decided to join the old man, and do some magic, what did he make disappear?